

Valley Chordsmen to deliver Singing Valentines Friday February 12 and Sunday-Valentine's Day

One of several Quartets from the Valley Chordsmen (From L to R) Gabe Riccio of Cromwell, Mark Genest and Duncan Stephens of Woodbury, and Paul Fitzgerald of Watertown, who will be donning tuxedos and delivering a song of love along with a rose and a card to area women (and men) again this year. Since Valentine's Day falls on a Sunday, the Chordsmen are adding an Early Valentine Delivery on Friday the 12, so the message can reach people at work and play. Last year Valentines were delivered to a wife in her exercise class, to a husband at work, to several couples at a restaurant, and to the general population of area nursing homes. The price of a Singing Valentine goes from $45 to $70 depending on your time constraints. To make a reservation for a musical visitation, call Duncan Stephens at 203-266-4009 or go to our web site for more information at www.valleychordsmen.com
